

PUSHING THE LIMITS

UNLEASH YOUR MIND

EXPLORE IDEAS ABOUT KNOWLEDGE,
CONNECTION, SURVIVAL, & NATURE
@ THE ALLEGAN DISTRICT LIBRARY.

Pushing the Limits is a reading, viewing, and discussion program for adults in communities served by rural libraries, made possible by a grant from the National Science Foundation.

Date	Theme	Book and Author
Thursday, March 20	Survival	Arctic Drift by Clive Cussler
Thursday, April 17	Connection	Thunderstruck by Eric Larson
Thursday, May 15	Knowledge	Land of the Painted Caves by Jean Auel
Thursday, June 19	Nature	When the Killing's Done by T.C. Boyle

Free and Open to the Public. Time for each session is 7-8:30 p.m.

Registration is suggested: 269-673-4625